

6:00 p.m.-Mayor Flannigan calls the meeting to order. Tom Gormley, Alderman Ward I; Jerry Green, Alderman Ward II; and Cody Quist, Alderman Ward II are present. Steve Aston, Alderman Ward I is absent. Also in attendance is Linda Haynes, City Clerk and Terry Foster, Chief of Police. There are no guests in attendance.

In re: Pledge of Allegiance & Moment of Silence-Mayor Flannigan leads the Pledge of Allegiance and then a moment of silence is held.

In re: 2022 1st Quarter Budget Review-The proposed budget was discussed. Tom Gormley asks if there are items that can be cut from the budget to stay within the current year revenues. Mayor Flannigan states that no cuts can be made without also cutting city services. Tom Gormley states that he is concerned about the loss of sales tax due to the concrete plant moving outside of the City's limits. Mayor Flannigan states that the possible decrease in sales tax is accounted for in the budget draft. Cody Quist, Budget Monitor, states that he does not believe there are any expenses included that are unnecessary. Following further discussion, Cody Quist makes a motion to draw up an ordinance for these changes for presentation at the May meeting. Jerry Green seconds the motion. All are in favor.

Tom Gormley makes a motion to adjourn. Cody Quist seconds the motion. All are in favor.

Respectfully Submitted:

Linda Haynes, City Clerk

Patrick Flannigan, Mayor
